Right from the start...

From your initial call, we'll make sure that all your requirements are understood and addressed, from the type of event you want to achieve, the programme, the audience and the tone.

We'll work with you to produce a complete schedule and to your budget, recommending the best solution - one which will deliver cost efficiency without compromising the desired effect.

And we'll react with speed - a guaranteed response by e-mail or fax within 24 hours.

A guarantee that the right equipment will be there, in the right place and on time...

We have made it a deliberate policy to build a substantial inventory of up to date audio visual equipment, chosen for its quality, robustness and reliability.

Owned by the company, we can guarantee its quality, its suitability and that it is carefully looked after and expertly maintained. Delivered using our own fleet, is also a guarantee that the right equipment will be there, in the right place and on time.

A total responsibility for supporting the event...

Every client team is led by a conference director who take personal responsibility for the successful completion of the job.

They have the ability and flexibility to react with speed to your needs and the needs of the moment. The conference director provides you with a single point of contact for all aspects of the operation.

A commitment to teamwork and professionalism...

Our in-house support teams are renowned for their commitment, teamwork and professionalism - before, during and after the event. Their personality, attitude and ability ensures that they can integrate closely with your own team, anticipating and responding quickly to your needs.

It's our responsibility...

Once contracted, we take on the full responsibility for ensuring that every element of the audio visual support not only meets the agreed requirements but exceeds them.

Never accepting second best...

We recognise that striving for 100% reliability depends upon meticulous planning and attention to detail at every stage. In the public eye, stage sets, vision and sound have to be immaculate. Behind the scenes, every eventuality has to be planned for. That's why, whether your event is for 50 or 2000 delegates, we work to the highest standard.
